

SIXTH WEEK CONTINUED

Social: LSE coming up to Oxford

Friday, 22.02., Details on our website or through the mailing list

On the 22. our members have the unique opportunity to meet our friends from the German Society at the LSE. The evening will kick off with drinks (maybe a dinner) and a small tour through Oxford followed by some more drinks in our favorite pubs together with ample opportunity to socialize and network. For those who have not had enough drinks by then (and the rest of course too) the evening will end in one of Oxford's greatest clubs...

SEVENTH WEEK

Elections

Wednesday, 27.02. 8pm, Lamb & Flag (next to St. John's)

Your chance to be on the Committee and to vote for the people you like. All positions will be available. Gain CV points! Realize your ideas with the German Society! Invite speakers of your choice!

EIGHTH WEEK

Social: Bavarian Breakfast

Sunday, 02.03. Price: yet to be determined.

Already fed up with baked beans, toast and bacon for breakfast? Come and enjoy a proper Bavarian Weisswurstfrühstück at late Sunday morning, with proper Munich Weisswursts, Pretzels and maybe even some amazing Bavarian beer! Don't miss this unique opportunity to start the day in a really zünftig and traditional Bavarian/German way. To make everything even more authentic and gemütlich don't forget to come in traditional Bavarian costume (If you have one, or can get one in a costume shop)!

Film: Schöne Frauen (2004)

Thursday, 06.03., 7.45pm, Worcester College, Lecture Room B, no charge.

Regie: Sathyan Ramesh. 82 mins. Engl. subtitles.

'Schöne Frauen' does not only keep up to what its title promises. Yes, you get to see schöne Frauen, but you also get a glimpse of the world behind their attractive outer shells. 5 unsuccessful actresses, all around 30 years old, meet at a casting for a rubbish film but soon decide to go on a short trip together.

TERMCARD HILARY 2008

German Society

Since its foundation almost 100 years ago, the Oxford University German Society has been encouraging debate amongst Oxford students over cultural, scientific, economic and political developments in the German-speaking world.

This flyer will assist you in gaining an overview of the eventful Hilary 08. For more information, subscribe to our newsletter and join our Facebook or Studi-VZ-Group.

THE COMMITTEE

Presidents: Philipp Lausberg, Fabian Pregel

Treasurer: Benedict Kaye
Events for life at any of our events
Elections: Laura Büttner, Theodor Schröter
Fundraising: Felix Kusch
For 15 € or pledge a cheque with your name to Charlotte Luetke
Secretary: Sophie Rohde
Membership: Charlotte Luetke Daldrup

Advisor: Alexander Drong

Films: Michael Fischer

For more information visit our Website at www.oxford-germansoc.org.

For more information visit our Website at www.oxford-germansoc.org.

Schedule Hilary 2008

The Oxford University German Society

FIRST WEEK

Film: Frau im Mond (1929)

Thursday, 17.01. Fritz Lang. Silent sci-fi work of art. Überlänge.

A scientist discovers that there's gold on the moon, he builds a rocket to fly there, but there's too much rivalry among the crew to have a successful expedition.

SECOND WEEK

Film: Das Leben der Anderen (The lives of others, 2006)

Thursday, 24.01., 7.45pm, Worcester College, Lecture Room B, no charge.

Gripping Oscar-winning drama about a Stasi spy and life in the GDR as it really was. By F. Henckel v. Donnersmarck. 132 mins. English subtitles.

1984: Stasi officer Anton Grubitz starts spying on a new 'case', the famous GDR dramatist Dreyman. Soon he gets torn apart between the political demand of 'convicting' Dreyman and Dreyman's fascinating life; a life that is so different to his own. And for the first time Grubitz asks himself a dangerous question: Are we really working towards creating the kind of state and society we set out to?

THIRD WEEK

Briefing on the Committee Elections

Tuesday, 29.01., 5pm, Café Nero (High Street)

This is a short "drink a coffee" social for everyone interested in joining the German Society Committee. It is NOT the election and even if you cannot make the drink a coffee social, you are still very much encouraged to get involved.

Film: In jenen Tagen (1947)

Thursday, 31.01. Worcester College, Lecture Room B, no charge.

Regie: Helmut Käutner. Einer der ersten Nachkriegsfilme, der auch noch in der Nazizeit spielt. Höchstspannendes Zeitdokument! 98 Min. Ohne UT.

A car tells its story and the story of its seven owners during the years of the Third Reich in Nazi Germany. A car tells its story and the story of its seven owners during the years of the Third Reich in Nazi Germany.

FOURTH WEEK

Film: Vaya con dios (2002)

Thursday, 07.02. Worcester College, Lecture Room B, no charge.

"Göttlich entspanntes Road Movie" und zärtliche Liebesgeschichte mit Daniel Brühl, Chiara Schoras & Michael Gwisdek. 103 min. Keine UT.

Three monks are making their way from Germany to a monastery in Italy, because they cannot afford the rent for their facility any longer.

FIFTH WEEK

SPEED DATING

Monday, 11.02. Pusey Room, 8pm, Keble College, 2 pound

Why not overcome winter's darkness by a hot speed dating? Just before Valentine's Day, the international speed dating is the ideal opportunity to get to know people from around the world. And remember: No one takes it too seriously and it is not only for Oxford's lonely hearts. If you find the love of your lifetime: great! If not, you will have a lot of fun anyway!

On top, you get the chance to win one of two three course French dinner at Brasserie Blanc with someone of your choice. Profits will be given to Oxfam. English counts as international ;-)

SIXTH WEEK

Career Talk: Forum Group

Tuesday, 19.02., 7pm, St. Catz's College

Forum is an asset management company from Munich, looking for graduates and interns to join their office. Forum follows a special valuing investing philosophy, based on rigorous analysis of single companies. They will a short presentation plus Q&A. More information in English and German at www.forumgruppe.de.

Film: E. Wallace: Der Mönch mit der Peitsche (1967)

Thursday, 21.02. Worcester College, Lecture Room B, no charge.

Prime crime-time-Spaß mit dem dt. James Bond Joachim Fuchsberger. 88 min. Dt. Untertitel.

Police try to track down a hooded serial killer who murders his victims with a combination of