📅 Thursday - Friday, 24th - 26th February 📍 tba Venue: tba

Sometimes overlooked in the English-speaking world, Goethe's Faust ranks amongst the greatest and most archetypal pieces of European literature. Based on new translations, staged in a chapel, and including a chorus in the cast, the Eglesfield Players have adapted this play aiming to bring across all the energy, and dramatic - but also comic - potential of this classic, without losing sight of its academic and religious debates as well as the striking relevance it still has to Oxford life. Definitely a sight to see! EINTRITT?
